

PROCLAMATION

General Aviation Appreciation Month 2018

Whereas, the City of Brookfield in the state of Missouri has significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aircraft manufacturing, aviation educational intuitions, aviation organizations and community airports; and

Whereas, general aviation and the North Central Missouri Regional Airport have an immense economic impact on the City of Brookfield; and

Whereas, Missouri is home to 115 public-use general aviation airports, which serve 9,087 pilots and 3,953 active general aviation aircraft; and

Whereas, Missouri is home to 95 fixed-based operators, 55 repair stations, 547 heliports, 6 FAA-approved pilot schools, 1,732 flight students and 1,610 flight instructors; and

Whereas, general aviation airports in Missouri support an economic impact of over $857 million annually; and

Whereas general aviation not only supports Missouri's economy, it improves overall quality of life by supporting emergency medical and healthcare services, law enforcement, firefighting and disaster relief, and by transporting business travelers to their destinations quickly and safely; and

Whereas, the nation's aviation infrastructure represent an important public benefit, and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure stable funding of this system;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lonnie Trentham, Mayor, do hereby proclaim general aviation a vital strategic resource to the City of Brookfield and declare March as General Aviation Appreciation Month in the City of Brookfield.
