

RESOLUTION
HONORING
GENERAL AVIATION WEEK

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State is home to six commercial service airports, 61 general aviation airports and 4 busy military airfields that provide essential support to South Carolina's diversified business based, increasing population and growing tourism industry; and

WHEREAS, airports support and assist South Carolina in many ways including recreational flying, providing a gateway to communities and tourist attractions, accommodating agricultural spraying, supporting air cargo and air freight shipments, helping law enforcement, supporting military and its operations, providing access in times of emergency and supporting medical needs and the medical profession; and

WHEREAS, many businesses in our state rely on aviation, both commercial services and general aviation airports, for the efficient transportation of people and goods; and

WHEREAS, with over 10 aerospace-related companies in the Palmetto State, aviation is a multi-billion dollar industry and, along with commercial service airports, general aviation airports, and military airfields, supports more than 70,000 jobs and contributes millions each year in tax benefits to state and local governments; and

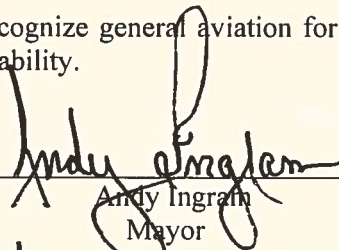

WHEREAS, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure stable funding of this system;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Andy Ingram, Mayor, Town of Cheraw, do hereby proclaim August 20-26, 2017 as:

in the Town of Cheraw, and encourage all our citizens to recognize general aviation for its significant contributions to our quality of life and economic growth and stability.

Andy Ingram
Mayor
