

General Aviation Appreciation Month
Proclamation

WHEREAS, Lafayette, in the state of Indiana, has a significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aircraft manufacturing, aviation educational institutions, aviation organizations, and community airports; and

WHEREAS, general aviation and the Purdue University Airport have a significant economic impact on the City of Lafayette; and

WHEREAS, the 2022 Indiana State Aviation Economic Impact Study found that general aviation airports in the state support an annual economic impact of over $1.4 billion, over 11,000 jobs, and a total payroll of over $548 million; and

WHEREAS, according to the FAA, the state has 127 public-use airports serving general aviation. These airports serve almost 13,000 pilots and almost 5,000 registered aircraft; and

WHEREAS, according to the FAA, the state is home to 51 repair stations, 19 FAA-approved pilot schools, over 4,500 student pilots, and over 2,000 flight instructors; and

WHEREAS, general aviation not only supports Indiana's economy, it improves overall quality of life by supporting emergency medical and healthcare services, law enforcement, firefighting and disaster relief, investments in sustainable fuels and technologies, and investments in innovative experimental technology like Vertical Takeoff and Landing vehicles, and by transporting business travelers to their destinations quickly and safely; and

WHEREAS, the United States faces a shortage of aviation professionals, leaders should invest in this critical infrastructure to ensure future economic growth and our next generation of aviation professionals and pilots;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Roswarski, Mayor of the City of Lafayette, do hereby proclaim April 2023 as GENERAL AVIATION APPRECIATION MONTH.
