Proclamation

- Whereas, West Virginia General Aviation and local airports play a critical role in the lives of our citizens, businesses, communities, and the State of West Virginia; and
- Whereas, General Aviation benefits West Virginia through corporate, private, charter, and air taxi travel; shipping and express air freight services; firefighting; public safety and law enforcement; weather and traffic reporting; and recreation and tourism; and
- Whereas, General Aviation plays a vital role in the State's response to natural disasters, medical emergencies, search and rescue operations, and a wide range of critical resources; and
- Whereas, West Virginia has a significant interest in the continued vitality of General Aviation, the aerospace industry, West Virginia airports, aircraft manufacturing and repair station, and aviation education; and
- Whereas, West Virginia provide access for businesses and tourists to isolated area, enabling businesses to remain part of the Nation's Air Transportation System and connected to the world's global marketplace; and
- Whereas, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit, and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure stable funding of this system; and
- Whereas, the use of General Aviation by businesses and farms in West Virginia is directly tied to the future growth and prosperity of the State.

Now therefore, Be it Resolved that I, William Kawecki, Mayor of the City of Morgantown, West Virginia do hereby proclaim October 2017 as:

General Aviation Appreciation Month

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Seal:

William Kawecki, Mayor
