

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Orangeburg in the State of South Carolina, has a significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aircraft manufacturing, aviation educational institutions, aviation organizations and community airports; and,

WHEREAS, airports support and assist South Carolina in many ways, including recreational flying providing a gateway to communities and tourist attractions, accommodating agricultural spraying, supporting air cargo and air freight shipments, helping law enforcement, supporting the military and its operations, providing access in times of emergency and supporting medical needs and the medical profession; and,

WHEREAS, many businesses in our state rely on aviation, both commercial service and general aviation airports, for the efficient transportation of people and goods; and,

WHEREAS, with over one-hundred (100) aerospace-related companies in the Palmetto State, aviation is a multi-billion dollar industry and, along with commercial service airports, general aviation airports and military airfields, supports more than 70,000 jobs and contributes millions each year in tax benefits to state and local governments.

WHEREAS, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael C. Butler, Mayor of the City of Orangeburg, South Carolina, do hereby proclaim August, 2018, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize general aviation for its significant contributions to our quality of life and economic growth and stability.

Michael C. Butler, Mayor
