Official Statement

*O*n behalf of the State of Connecticut,
I, Dannel P. Malloy, Governor, take great pleasure in recognizing

September 2012
as

Aviation Appreciation Month

*T*his month is an opportunity for aircraft owners, pilots, aviation enthusiasts and others to share an appreciation for the freedom of flight, the camaraderie of the aviation community, as well as the past and future of aviation in Connecticut.

*A*viation is extremely important in the State of Connecticut, as we have 11 state and municipal airports serving millions of people annually. This includes Bradley International Airport, the 2nd largest airport in New England and home to the New England Air Museum.

*A*viation is inextricably linked to economic development in the State of Connecticut and we support the many workers employed here in the aviation industry. We celebrate aviation and the many ways in which it enriches our lives.

*T*herefore, I, Dannel P. Malloy, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby proclaim September 2012 as in the State of Connecticut.
