

Proclamation

by Governor Earl Ray Tomblin

- Whereas, West Virginia General Aviation and local airports play a critical role in the lives of our citizens, businesses, communities, and the State of West Virginia; and
- Whereas, General Aviation in West Virginia contributes over $616 million, or $333 per capita, to the State's economy; and
- Whereas, West Virginia has 32 public airports serving more than 2,200 pilots and 1,370 General Aviation Aircrafts; and
- Whereas, General Aviation benefits West Virginia through corporate, private, charter and air taxi travel; shipping and express air freight services; firefighting; public safety and law enforcement; weather and traffic reporting; and recreation and tourism; and
- Whereas, General Aviation plays a vital role in the State's response to natural disasters, medical emergencies, search and rescue operations, and a wide range of critical resources; and
- Whereas, with the State's geography, large numbers of businesses and communities depend on General Aviation aircrafts for access to medical treatment, economic opportunity, and communication; and
- Whereas, West Virginia has a significant interest in the continued vitality of General Aviation, the aerospace industry, West Virginia airports, aircraft manufacturing and repair stations, and aviation education; and
- Whereas, West Virginia airports provide access for businesses and tourists to isolated areas, enabling businesses to remain part of the Nation's Air Transportation System and connected to the world's global marketplace; and
- Whereas, the use of General Aviation by businesses and farms in West Virginia is directly tied to the future growth and prosperity of the State.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Earl Ray Tomblin, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 2014 as:

General Aviation Appreciation Month

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to recognize the vital strategic resource that aviation is in West Virginia.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Sixteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fourteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Second year of the State.
