

Proclamation

ESTABLISHING MARCH AS 'GENERAL AVIATION APPRECIATION MONTH' IN KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

WHEREAS, the City of Kansas City in the State of Missouri has a significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aircraft manufacturing, aviation educational institutions, aviation organizations and community airports; and

WHEREAS, general aviation and the Charles R. Wheeler Downtown Airport have an immense economic impact on the City of Kansas City; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is home to 115 public-use general aviation airports, which serve 9,087 pilots and 3,953 active general aviation aircraft; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is home to 95 fixed-based operators, 55 repair stations, 547 heliports, 6 FAA-approved pilot schools, 1,732 flight students and 1,610 flight instructors; and

WHEREAS, general aviation airports in Missouri support an economic impact of over $857 million annually; and

WHEREAS, general aviation not only supports Missouri's economy, it improves overall quality of life by supporting emergency medical and healthcare services, law enforcement, firefighting and disaster relief, and by transporting business travelers to their destinations quickly and safely; and

WHEREAS, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure stable funding of this system.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sylvester James, Mayor of the City of Kansas City, Missouri, on behalf of the citizens of this great city and the City Council, do hereby proclaim general aviation a vital strategic resource to the City of Kansas City and declare March as 'General Aviation Appreciation Month' in Kansas City, Missouri.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Sylvester James Jr.", is written over a horizontal line.

*Sylvester "Sly" James Jr., Mayor
City of Kansas City, Missouri*